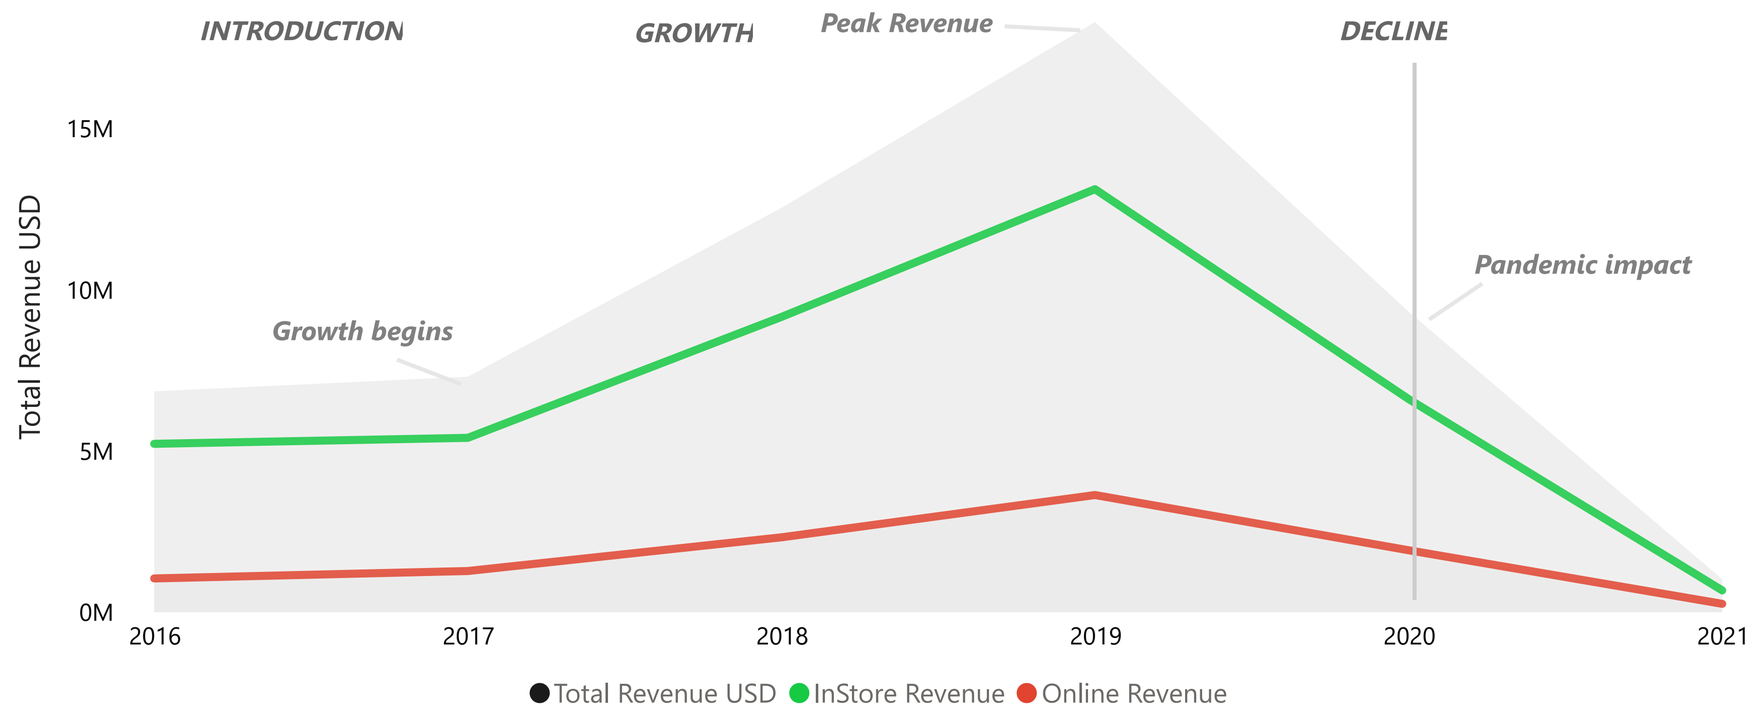
Revenue Trend



Total revenue peaked at $18M in 2019, before declining significantly in 2019-20 due to Global Semiconductor Slump(2019) and supply chain disruptions resulting in high inventory, trade tensions, weak demand, supply shortages and production delays, and in 2020 -21, coinciding with the COVID-19 pandemic. In-store revenue was most severely impacted while online revenue was most showed relative resilience.
Recommendation: Accelerate digital channel investment to reduce dependence on physical store revenue.
